"For so long God's people had longed for the Messiah. True to the prophecy of His coming, cries of praise could be heard ringing through the streets of Jerusalem as Christ the King entered the gates of the city. Declarations of praise turned to shouts of derision. Crowds yelled Crucify Him! But this was no ordinary king. The grave could not hold Him, and He arose, triumphant, three days later. Today, His Bride, the Church, lives in the light of the promise that He will return for us."
